 RE : ArchiNEXT: HCG Young Designers' Competition

For Review / Pls. Comment For Your Info. For Approval For Action

Please be informed that South Luzon Cavite - North Area through Dasmariñas Team has extended its agreement with HOCHENG PHILIPPINES CORPORATION to cater their inbound shipments.

- LBC branches nationwide shall accept their entries (A3 size bond papers), entry Forms and CD File with Envelop or Packaging.

ArchiNEXT Young Designers' Competition is the Corporate Social Responsibility of Hocheng Philippines Corporation that challenges 3rd and 4th year BS Architecture students nationwide to go outside the box and create masterpieces that are helpful in the community.

ArchiNEXT, in partnership with the United Architects of the Philippines (UAP), and the Council of Deans and Heads of Architecture Schools in the Philippines (CODHASP), is a two-part program made up of a competition and scholarship.

This year's design challenge is LINGAP: General Hospital and Extended Emergency Facility.

Guidelines and Procedures:

1. This is a competition / scholarship which are open to 3rd – 4th year level Architecture students around the country.
2. Contestants will visit the nearest LBC branch to send their entries. Design stage will start from September 1, 2020 and the deadline of submission of entries shall be on December 31, 2020.
3. For the students / contestant to be eligible, they must present the following;
 - School ID (should be currently 3rd – 4th year Architect student)
 - Photocopy of ArchiNEXT entry form
4. All LBC Branches will process the entries as Day 1 shipment using our published rate through CAMS for Charge basis. Make sure that the entries are unfolded, free from stains.
5. A copy of Official Receipts (Reprinted OR) shall be issued to Contestants. This will serve as proof that they have already sent their entries.
6. LBC accepting Associate must ensure that the entries from the contestants are sealed and labeled properly. (Name of the Contestant).
7. All accepted shipments should have the following details:

Shipper:
